Announces

THE 1st INTERNATIONAL ULAMA CONFERENCE ON HALAL STANDARD IN RÜSSELSHEIM - GERMANY

Halal Control is holding the "1st International Ulama Conference on Halal Standard" in Rüsselsheim (Germany) from 19.-20. April 2010. Several respected Islamic scholars (Fiqh experts of different Fiqh faculties from universities in Indonesia, Kuwait, Malaysia, Syria, United Arab Emirates), authorities and technical experts will be debating about principle halal norms and issues raised by the certification practice and by recent scientific developments. The outcomes want to help to create a large base supporting the development in the international halal standardization process and to improve quality and stability of halal norms. This conference tries to accommodate the particularities of the different mazahab (Islamic fiqh schools) discussing the integrity and accuracy of halal norms on interdisciplinary expert level. Main objective is to protect consumers and to enable the industry to integrate norms which are applicable to all Islamic countries.
